Anyone interested in trading my Canon xl1 camcorder for a mini dv deck? I've had the Canon since 2004 and used it consistently until 2007, and then again for a video project in 2010. Otherwise it's been stored in my closet in a hard case. I no longer have a need for it because I've been shooting exclusively HD digital. Great for first time videographers!

Based on market value of my used Canon, I am guessing that it's worth $500, with the hard case and all the accessories. I'm willing to negotiate, or trade for a miniDV deck.

Included: Hardcase, wide angle lense, xIR shoulder mount, 4 miniDV tapes, 3 batteries and charger, remote.
