I've just gotten off the phone with a recruiter to fill the role, but I thought why not put it on CL to see if there may be a fit. Plus, I can add what I really want to say. That is:

- 1) you need to be highly organized and methodical regarding scheduling
- 2) you need to have a good phone voice for clients and give a sense of calm, but firm.
- 3) you need to be attractive and like the knowledge that your boss cares about your looks. It should only make you hotter to know it.
- 4) able To be discrete as the other employees need not know you replied to a CL ad where I'm essentially telling you that in addition to being fully competent, you also are something to gaze at.
- 5) you seek a boss that gazes... And it makes for a situation that gets you hotter
- 6) please be height weight appropriate. We're in NYC... Lots of fish so stand out please!

I welcome your reply, serious inquiry only.
