I am leaving for new Orleans on Wednesday the 22nd or Thursday morn the 23rd of April for new Orleans and happen to have lots'o space for another traveler. All I ask is help with gas money and a good attitude! I can drive there and/or back again and I will be heading back to St. Louis either the fourth or fifth of may. Please reach out as I think it would be helpful for us to meet each other before embarking on ten hours together! just send a text and the name is Maria, looking!
