hello my name is Jon i have recently opened my own automotive repair shop where i do a number of things both general/regular maintenance and custom motor work, stereos ground effects and lighting.

please understand that I AM a legit business so i don't cut corners on my work nor do i "rig" short term solutions, i fix it right the first time so you dont have to get it done again. so whith that being said i stand behind my work 100% so if human error ever does occur on my end amd the job needs to be adjusted or fixed i will take care of my errors free of charge. I also do late night and overnight emergency repairs

please contact

and if you are going to text or leave a vm please include what you need done and the year, make, model and engine of your.
