If you are a TOP NOTCH Concrete finisher listen up!!!

We are looking for a specific guy. Not Afraid of heights. Someone who is in enough physical shape who can climb up and down many many times a day. Someone who is TOTALLY 100% money driven and self motivated. Available to work long hours. Available to work most Saturdays. Someone who can out perform 3 guys next to him and will cause he is Making one of concrete wages in Central Oklahoma area. Someone who is available and does not have a problem with being out overnight "possibly" a couple meaning 1 or 2 nights a week. Someone who has a current DL. Someone who has their own transportation. Not a way to work but your own transportation. Someone who not only can build a solid and strong form but can lay our a 2 x 12 on 4ft centers. Someone will to learn additional things. Willing to listen and give 110% like the guy next to him. Definitely a no nonsense NO EXCUSES and get it done type guy. Can you stay off your cell phone and not have drama or other issues to handle every other day? This is not your everyday concrete finishing position.

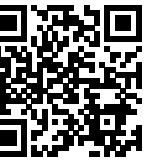

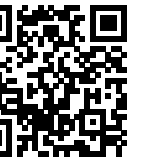

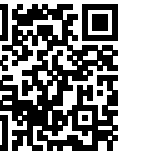

You must and I do stress MUST be very good with a one man rod.

If this sounds like you and I don't mean who you would like to be some day but I mean who you are now. You have your own tools. You can run a power trowel with accuracy.

If all the above sounds like you. Not part or some of the list but fits it about perfectly. Then you need to respond any and all you experience.

Then send us a email How long and what you have personally done with concrete. Any and all framing or wood related working experience you may have.
