Chicago photographer is still shooting female models for submission to a NEW Magazine and casting for ladies age 21 to 43. Three to five models will be scheduled for this shoot.

The magazine put out this call:

A new print & online Magazine is looking for several girls to publish in their magazine, it will be similar to what FHM and Maxim magazine is. If selected & used in the magazine, there will be monetary compensation and each model we select and use will be able to write her own bio and promote herself as well as her photographer if she likes. Each girl will also receive her own page on the magazine's website.

These are "Non-Nudity" but implied is what they are looking for. They hope to go to print in a few weeks so time is of the essence and submissions must be completed and sent in. If you would like to submit for the shoot, please reply with full name, photos, age, physical stats, contact info and availability for the month of April. More details, info about the magazine and a link to my portfolio will be provided to interested.
