Do you have a story, but not sure how to publish it? Let us take your story and sell it for you. We are a small publishing company specializing in working with first-time authors. If you have a book or story ready to go, we can help you edit it, create a cover, publish, and market it. Anything from romance to zombies, and everything in between. We work on a flat 50% royalty rate, so you keep a big share of the profits, with no hidden fees.

Unlike most publishing houses, we won't take your money for editing, covers, or marketing. We take care of that. There are no hidden charges. Unlike most publishing houses, we don't require you to sign your rights away for 7 or more years. That's not fair, and we know it. We do 1 or 2 years, max, and give you the choice of renewing after that. As authors ourselves, we know what's fair and what isn't. We don't succeed unless our authors succeed.

If interested, send us an e-mail and tell us about what you have been working on and we can go from there, or check us out online: http://rojapublishing.com/submission/
