would you be interested in trashing random guys facebook/email accounts if you had access to their pages, and they agreed to let you do so, because of bets they lost?

Currently we are seeking women who would be perfectly fine with it. Break.com is a humor website that was founded in 1998. We are known for showcasing various viral videos on our homepage, and paying out cash to uploaders of original content. Break Media also hosts other popular websites such as Chickipedia.com, HolyTaco.com, and MadeMen.com.

A few years ago we came up with this web series titled Breakers, where attractive women were showcased finding creative ways to break everyday ordinary objects.(objects such as Electronics/CDs/Go Karts).

Today we are currently in the process of launching a sportsbook called Sports Bragsters. Users will have the ability to make bets on sporting events, and win cash prizes. In order to avoid anti gambling laws we give all our users an opportunity to win back any cash they lost. Members who lose bets made with real cash will have the opportunity to keep their cash by completing various dares, or stunts agreed upon before the bet is made.

here are some examples of dares users in our beta site completed:

a few thousand Break.com members have been participating in our beta site for the past few months and we have come up with various bets where the losers have agreed to let whomever we found mess up their personal online accounts.

That's where you would come in. We are Seeking a group of attractive online women who would be interested in becoming our new online Breaker Girls. Breaker Girls would be given access to our website for a month. Currently there would be no pay. You could win $1000 if you were found as "Breaker Girl/Mean Girl for the Month".

We offer a chance to win our website access to our photographer. Good luck!
