Location Tennessee

I'm looking for a very part time female photography assistant. I shoot photography for inclusion in art pieces and need someone who is reliable and creative. I only do about two shoots a week and sometimes none, all of which are done during the day, during the week and the shoots last about four hours. This would be perfect for someone wanting to pick up extra cash. If you're interested, please respond to this ad and tell me about yourself. Photography experience is not.
