Hi, my name is Alyssa and my husband's name is Josh. I've never done anything like this before, but I've seen many people post stuff like this on Craigslist, so bare with me for a moment.

We currently lost our home in Mesa, Az, due to my husband's boss losing his business, to a gambling addiction. I'm 6 months pregnant, so it's EXTREMELY difficult for me, we've been staying in motels and it's not the kind of life we want for ourselves nor our baby boy. Josh my husband, installs granite countertops for a living and is willing to work whatever openings come his way. He can install granite countertops for you, your friends and or family members in exchange of somewhere to live. We DON'T want a free hand out and we AREN'T asking for one. What we are asking for is a place to lay our heads at night, somewhere safe, and in exchange we will work, only until we can save up some money to get into our own place. We both have poor credit, that's another issue holding us back from getting an apartment, everywhere we've looked wants the first months rent and a security deposit which is the same as rent so realistically we need to save about $1300- $1600 to be able to get in somewhere. We do have our own vehicle so transportation isn't an issue. That's where we can help out to, if you DON'T have a vehicle, we do and can get you to wherever you need to be. Again we aren't looking for a hand out, we're honest, hard working people, & we would greatly appreciate your help!! Thanks and God Bless!
