Want to avoid the cost and hassle of renting a moving van or calling professionals?
 Bought a piece of furniture on craigslist, or at a local retailer that doesn't deliver?
 Need some items taken to the dump?
 Just need a pickup truck and a little help?

My name is Jason, and I have a full-size Toyota Tundra with a BIG 8-foot bed. With the tailgate open, I can accommodate items as long as 10 feet! I also own tie downs, blankets, tarps, and a hand truck to help move your items safely and easily.

I am the least expensive mover in the Hartford area - $30/hr for the truck and my moving help, plus any additional costs I may incur, such as fuel, tolls, or dump fees. My minimum is just $50, which would include 90 minutes of help and fuel for a job in my immediate local area.

NOTE: If large items such as couches or appliances are to be moved, please ensure that an able-bodied person is present to assist me.

Sample prices as follows:

3 hours of labor to help you move to a new apartment ($90)
 fuel fee ($10)
