Seeking a roommate to share a beautiful 2bd/2ba with a 180 degree ocean view steps from the sand. The place is modern and has amazing light, with Mexican tile and high ceilings. There is a sundeck, large kitchen, 2 parking spots and the community is quiet and safe. It's before Sunset blvd, and just outside of Santa Monica.

I'm looking for a clean, responsible, easygoing roommate who is sociable but also respectful of the neighbors. Hoping to find a professional, who is active and is easy to get along with.

I'm a filmmaker in my 30's, I write and edit for TV and film. Dogs are ok.

Please tell me a little bit about yourself.

The rent is 2,200 for one room, not the entire.
