I have a lightly used ps4 for sale that I don't use because I just don't have the time anymore. The ps4 runs great and has no issues, I also have the original controller, a charger cable, and I also have a brand new camo controller that I got at gamestop for 60$ that I used literally one time. The ps4 also comes with battlefield 4 and I might have games laying around that I can't remember off the top of my head. Asking 350 obo cash only I need this sold by this weekend so I may be a little lenient on the price.... please text me my name is Kyle and I am located in Newark Delaware. Not uploading any pics because I just don't feel like it if you really want some text me and ask for..
