Choosing a Health Insurance Plan

You'll likely be considering which plan is right for you during open enrollment, when you can shop for a plan on the government's Health Insurance Marketplace.

When you're choosing a health insurance plan, you'll want to look at more than the premiums and deductibles to evaluate plan options. Take a look at the co-insurance amount, too, and then decide which deductible, premium and co-insurance mix is the best option for you.
