Whats good people? I'm Slugga & I released my first project for the world monday night! It hit online via Datpiff & Soundcloud and I'd appreciate it if you gave my project some quality time with your ears. If you do so let me know what you truly think. Feel free to give me your honest opinion. If you happen to like what you hear please download and share with your circle!!

Lately I've been looking for the right people to connect with and work with. I'm looking for artists, models, journalists, managers, etc. I'm really looking for the whole nine yards. Just anyone that can put their hand into the entertainment world.

A big thing as well is finding those that can help me learn and get inside the hip hop community in your area. I really want to lock into the community because I believe that those that strive for success can be assets for one another. I believe that showing and receiving support is the only way to make it on top, along with hard work and grinding. So if you can help with anything as far as bookings, touring, features, clothing lines, PR, Marketing, etc please contact us. Once you've contacted us we can exchange numbers and go from there! Hope to hear from you thanks!
