Loving/Protective Mother has an opening for childcare in my home. Newborn to school-age welcome. Great rates & flexible hours.

My home is a non-smoking, safe, very small group, "home-like" environment with lots of love and fun. I offer educational play and age appropriate academic activities, with tons of "one on one" time, as well as kisses, hugs, rocking, tummy time, reading time, and special individual attention that's never found in a busy daycare! As a Mother, I understand how scary it can be to try to find good childcare for your little one. It is very important to me that when your child is here, that they feel like a true part of our family. I want them to receive the same loving care, and comfortable environment that they get at home!!!

I have infant/child CPR-First Aid certification, lots of newborn and preemie experience! Great references available (from past parents as well as from the Moms that currently bring their kiddos each day). Let this be your child's "home away from home" and become a part of our family!#
