Have to let my girl Rottweiler go. I want to see her go to a good home only. Older kids would be great only because she likes taking younger kids toys. House broken and knows down and go home. She's an inside dog so her new owners will have to be looking for an inside dog. All shots up to date. Akc for her parents but previous owers can't find them. Adoption fee of $500. Includes cage & kennel. Update since posting this..lots of replys but I wanted to give my son a second chance. It didn't work out so I still need to let daisy go. Shes up to date with all her shots...every shot you can think of she has and micro chip implanted. She has been spayed also. And she's now 9 months.
