Hello. I am looking for a person or persons to help me sell things on eBay. This is how I make my living and I could use some help to get my business to the next level. I am offering this Gig Opportunity first because I just don't want to Over Promise and Under Deliver about a job that might not work out. Working eBay is basically a numbers game, the more we do it the more it would pay.

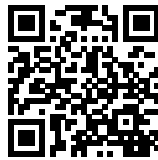

I pretty much have an idea of what and who I am looking for. I would like to find two people helping me. A woman to help me sell women's stuff and a male to help me sell men's stuff. Each gender of course would have better knowledge and understanding of their own gender items. My helpers would need to have some basic computer skills, reading and writing in english, some product knowledge and being able to describe things accurately and of course being familiar with eBay. Above all requirements one thing extremely important to me that the person can not be a smoker. I simply can not be around and will not be around smokers. This is my choice to make just like for another to smoke. So, just like oil and water don't mix, me and smokers don't work either. The person helping me would need to be available in the day time between regular business hours of 8.00 am and 6.00 pm. Although I work many times late, even in the middle of the night, I just don't want to make a commitment doing that and changing my life all around. Well, if you think this Gig Opportunity would be something for you, send me a message with your info and some background experiences you may have so I can find the best candidates. I am looking forward finding some nice and good people to work with. Thanks for your time reading this post.
