Man, 62, looking to form an acoustic string band doing Gospel and other "bluegrassy" (not necessarily strict bluegrass) types of songs. I play guitar and mandolin and sing. (I also play fiddle, not great.) Looking for other 1) Christians; 2) who sing AND play an instrument. Please don't respond if you only do one and not the other. Instruments: Guitar, mando, banjo, fiddle...no drums, no electric bass, thanks. I live in Pittston and am hoping to find others w/in 30-45 minute drive; I was on the road for years and am tired of it just now. Play for the love of the music AND select gigs, but I want this to be very much a side project, not looking to make a big splash at this point. If you're STILL interested, lol, get in!
