I have two wonderful, well handled ferrets. They are male and female and have both been fixed are de-scented. I just don't have the time for them anymore and I want to find them a home where they will get the love they deserve. They will come with what food they have, toy bin, multilevel cage and accessories. I do not want to separate them. I'm asking for a small homing fee just to insure they will be taken care of well. Please contact me with interests, questions, or.
