My name is Christal, I stay at home with my 3 year old son- I would like to work a few hours a week but its hard to work part time and afford child care- I'm looking for other stay at home Moms who would like to get to know each other- start a play group and if it works out we could swap babysitting. I would never put my child with someone I didn't know, or trust, but it would be nice to have someone for date nights trips to the store or work or whatever most day cares don't do drop ins and if they do they are scary. I live in Nampa have a nice house, 2 older kids in school. If your looking for friends or just playmates it would be a fun group to start. Call or Text if you'd like to get together and get to know each other. being a stay at home can be lonely and confining, but if we help each other it doesn't have to be. I can provide what ever you need to show I'm legit-we can meet for coffee first etc. Thanks- I hope to hear from some
