Love to sing? Been singing for a while, or would like to start singing?
Want to be in a choir but hate the thought of auditioning?
Or maybe you love auditioning?

But most importantly, love to sing?

If any of these things sound like you, come join Blueprint!

Blueprint is a well-established choral organization for anyone who loves to sing, and we have spots open!

Blueprint is for singers of all levels of experience, focusing on musical growth in a comfortable, no-pressure setting. As there are many ensembles, you will sing side-by-side with those of comparable backgrounds and experience levels!

The organization performs music from all genres, even pieces recommended its singers -- which could include you!

For example, pieces from this past year include songs by everyone from Mozart to Carly Simon and from Eric Whitacre to The Beatles!

Hate the pressure of auditioning? No worries! No audition is necessary; we have several choirs with varying experience levels, both audition and non-audition.
