He is a Black neutered male also last seen wearing a neon pink collar and is micro chipped.He must have gotten out when having furniture delivered on 4/6/15 ironically I donated my old furniture to help animal shelters.He was an indoor cat so very worried he will not know how to get home.I believe he was frightened by the delivery men and did not see him run out the door.I have put up posters everywhere in the neighborhood My Fear is he might have jumped in the truck from one stop furniture or maybe have gotten in one of the old couch's I have contacted them but they said they did not see him so he could be in Camas or where ever they took my old furniture too..Please contact me if you have seen him or have him my heart is empty without him I just need him home Thank you..please Call Diane@
