hip hop head in SE Portland looking to collaborate with likeminded MCs. I mostly make beats but like to rap a bit too, I just don't feel like I have anything interesting to say in my rhymes usually.

I'm most into 1995-2005 rap, not feelin the whole mainstream/trap thing that much and hang out a little off the beaten path in my beat/rhyme style. Here are some links so you can get a feel..

I've probably got 50 rap beats on my computer that I've never used because I've struggled to meet anyone here who I vibe with. Email me some fire you've recorded n we'll make it happen, trying to get a album recorded this summer (got studio equipment & mixing skills). I also got a few connections in the music biz (more on the electronic side of things, but ya know) so there's potential if you rhyme tight to do it big..
