Heartbroken to do this but we have a kitty that needs her forever home. She's maybe 9-10 months. Still very much a kitten. Full of energy but a huge lap cat. She loves to be with her people and will follow you around the house. Does great with other cats as well. Never seen her around dogs. She is lactose intolerant, so please make sure she gets no milk or cheese products. She was hard food during day and half can wet in morning and half at night. Again no dairy and palet type does best on her stomach. She is an amazing sweetheart and I don't think she ever stops purring. Loud purr. She is a talker. But it's not loud. Just soft sweet meows while you talk to her. She doesn't take warm up time, she just wants love. This cat is our Princess. But for how social she is its not fair to keep her locked up all day alone. She needs a home she can explore and call her own. Her fur is amazingly soft. And she's not hard to bathe at all!!! She receives them atleast once every 2 weeks with no problems! Although hair dryer she will cry about Æ°Ä,Ëœâ€°.

I was told she is a snowshoe but she could be a long haired orenintal as well. She's def a Siamese breed. She is fixed. Liter box trained. She is an indoor cat. She loveeeeees going outside but will not leave your sight or the yard. 5-10 minutes at a time then she wants back in. She needs a home where they will allow that, because she will want to do that. She will go out, roll around and pretty much be done. It's adorable!

Please if you are interested in giving princess a home, please call or text me. Tell me a bit about the home you would offer her and feel free to ask questions.

Thanks!
