Our Golden Retriever has been missing from us for just over a year. PLEASE if you have or know somebody who has a new older golden maybe from 2013 Christmas--he appears to be 5 or 6 but is actually 10-neutered male, wonderfully mannered and friendly and so well trained-please call. He is all gold with a little white on his eyebrows and by his nose. He is friendly and happy and he smiles--but our family misses him everyday. He needs medication for his bloodshot eyes. He has a micro chip--any vet can check. Even when happy, he must be wondering where his family is that raised him from a pup. Please look at the photos and tell somebody if they got a Golden for Christmas 2013 to please check him at the vet. We have not given up on finding him and just want him.
