We are an essential services and wellness company. We are looking for self-starters as these types of people have proven to be fun to work with and have excelled in this business. You can work part-time and won't interfere with what you are currently doing. We are helping friends and families experience saving in everyday services, improved health and supplementing their incomes if they desire. We offer savings on essential products by partnering with industry leaders to pass the saving on to you. Your role is simply to share an amazing idea, build a team and enjoy the rewards. You must be coachable, reliable, love helping others and a team player. Much like any business there is a small startup cost to get all your marketing materials, websites and trainings you will need to be successful.

We are rapidly expanding in the Oklahoma City and the surrounding areas and we are looking for LEADERS who can step up to the plate. If you have ever wanted to be involved in something bigger than you and will give you a sense of fulfillment, this is it. Compensation will be commission based paid weekly, bonuses paid monthly. Top producers enjoy and luxury car bonus, all inclusive vacations, monthly business allowance, lifestyle bonuses and much more! This will take work but then again you already know that if you match the description above.

Why you should be considered for our team:

What are your life goals?

The amount of time you will be able to commit to this business part time if selected

Your biggest life accomplishment and sacrifices you have made for that.

We receive 30- 50 responses daily for this add so we will get back to you in order received but no longer that 24 hrs. Myself or business partner will contact you if we feel that we should talk further based on email response to information requested and schedule an appointment so impress us with your response.
