We are looking for production workers, warehouse workers, and general labor. We need people who are comfortable dealing with the public, have a good time, and take pride in a job well done! Previous experience that may qualify you includes: THEATRE STAGE HAND / FILM PRODUCTION/ WAREHOUSE LEAD / EVENT or FESTIVAL CREW.

GIG SUMMARY

As part of our event team you will work directly with production managers and crew leads to deliver, setup, run/operate, and take down scheduled products at various late night events around the northwest. This is a labor-intense job that frequently involves interacting with clients and the public attending the event. You will work overnight hours and weekends, so the ability to stay pleasant, sharp, and focused during a long day is essential.

Some of the core requirements are:

- Participating in crew team training and meetings
- Assisting the team with staying on schedule and deliverables to ensure successful events
- Comfortable in a professional, well-structured environment
- Polite, pleasant personality, cooperative, and well-suited to public interaction
- Be in good physical condition and able to lift at least 50 pounds
- Have a valid driver's license and proof of insurance
- Be available from 5pm to 5am (some variation in shift hours)

SCHEDULE

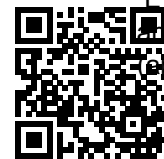

Evenings and weekends are required. The position runs from approximately May 24th (5/24) through June 18th (6/18). An informational training session is mandatory and will be held on Thursday, May 24th (5/24) from 5pm to 7pm. Training will continue from June 1st to June 18th. Required shifts are often 12 hours or more, approximately 5pm to 5AM. Compensation is negotiable. Must have a reliable vehicle to transport yourself to and from work. An war is in Lynnwood.
