I'm a 40's female going back to horse racing as a hobby after many years (I'm really a suburban girl now, but I grew up with horses). My spark has been rekindled and I would love to have someone I can go to the track with on weekends that is savvy at handicapping and would enjoy sharing tips with a beginner and having an enjoyable day out at the same time. I'm not looking for a relationship, only social companionship with business investment and hobby pursuits in mind.

Most of my friends are out state, so that's why I'm posting here. They would describe me as fun, engaging, smart, entrepreneurial, never boring, smile a lot, nonsmoker, don't do drugs, health conscious, young at heart, family oriented, and energetic. I'm a strategic thinker, love business - would like to squeeze in more time for myself this summer along with traveling. Horse racing is something that excites me! Does it you? Maybe you too would like to head out to Emerald Downs and have someone to talk to as you're making that money -lol!

Same age range preferred, divorced, kids, live life with appreciation towards others, maybe have some things in common. Let me know if you have interest. Purely plutonic, no romantic intentions.
