He Suffered a spinal cord injury (recovered now) but remains incontinent. Spent almost $1000 now with no success. Will need to live outdoors only unless you have the ability to keep diapers on him (I tried but he wasn't having it!) or an easily cleanable floor. Very friendly 5 yr old male, neutered. Contact asap! Will drop off anywhere for the right home, barn, farm etc. so include your location and a little about where he will be living please! I will be forever grateful because he just can't live in my home anymore. It is fully carpeted and I live on a main road in a town so he can't live outside my home. I'm scared for his safety.

Thank you for reading.

P.s. I have contacted about 20 different rescues on the east coast and no body will take him. So he needs to go to a place not affiliated with a rescue. Please be on the look out for anybody you know who may be willing to take on a cat like.
