1992 Nissan Sentra SER manual transmission. The people that owned this car before me were into autocross and have made several modifications. The suspension is not stock, it has aluminum struts in the front and rear and it comes with a set of race wheels (one wheel is pictured, but the car comes with 5 race wheels) as well as the stock wheels. The car also has a new transmission, front axle, and all new fuel injectors. I also believe that the car has been lowered. It comes with a lot of spare parts that the original owners kept as they modified the car. This car handles great and runs really well. There is one dent on the left-front of the car and the car could use a new muffler. Other than that, the car is in great condition. I can take the roof rocks off, or you can have them. Please call for.
