An energetic Grandmother seeks Personal Assistant for daily assistance. In this position, you'll be working with a healthy, energetic senior that will require no medical assistance. Duties will revolve around taking her out for errands, shopping about town, movies, dinning out; just keeping her busy with daily fun things and socialization that she's been used to. You will be required to plan her daily activities each morning.

Experience preferred, but will consider a homemaker or similar background. Hours will range, but looking for someone to spend time with her at least 27-30 hours per week, sometimes it could be a bit more. Compensation is generous at $27 per hour to start with all expenses paid when applicable. Health insurance, vacation and paid time off time will begin after 3 months.
