Hello Models,

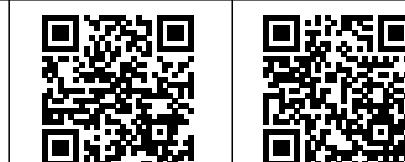

I have three casting calls (auditions) coming up around the third week of April. If you get booked the pay is between $300 to $900 depending on which gig you book and how many days you work (apprx. 3 days total) which is easy money. Hairstyles will be discussed with stylist BEFORE you agree to them, this means you have say in what they do to your hair!!!

To submit, check the 3 castings below to see if you fit the requirements, EMAIL ME, subject line "NASHVILLE" 3 recent PHOTOS, your name, height, measurements, dress size. Just FYI, do not email me a resume, past job experience is not important as we will take beginning models if they are the right look.

If you are approved, fill out our registration (FREE- as in all castings or auditions are free, see our registration page for more details), PRINT/WRITE DOWN the instructions, address, and time IMMEDIATELY, and show up on time and be as friendly as possible as these are your potential employers, you must impress them to actually book the job.

CHEERS!!!!

-ERIN
