I am looking for people who have the know how and momentum to put my concepts and ideas to work. I have an epic game idea that absolutely must be created. I truly believe that this concept will revolutionize and rebuild the entire gaming industry, and the world altogether.

I need some dedicated, creative, like minded, big dreamer types to talk to and work on this with. I want to get all the goods on paper, contracts, etc. all that so we are all legally protected and our ideas are too. If you're interested in an entirely new concept that will make history, get ahold of me.
