Hello, I'm looking to rehome my eyelash crested gecko. He is about 1.5 years old with light reddish coloring. He will be coming with his terrarium (Exo-Terra Glass Terrarium 18x18x24), all his climbing/decoration items, and a bottle of his powdered food along with a ceramic food dish. I am asking $75, but considering all reasonable offers. Text or email any time. Only taking cash offers, not interested in trading. Will consider rehoming just the lizard without his terrarium so send me an offer. Must be able to pick up in Surprise or meet in surrounding areas. Need gone as soon as possible.

Side note: The screen top of his tank has a hole in it from when we had his humidifier pushing through it. He started to escape through the hole and the humidifier stopped working so we covered the top in saran wrap. It does not affect functionality and it actually assists in keeping the humidity and moisture inside his tank.
