I am insured and have access to new equipment or will be happy to install your supplied tv mount, receivers, speakers and most any home entertainment components.

I am an experienced installer that can do most everything from tv wall mounting to full home theater projects. I have all the tools and equipment to handle most any job, large or small.

From wifi to network cabling, I can relocate cable jacks, install new cabling from speaker wire to data.

If I am unavailable, please leave a message or text me.
