Paid Sales Internship - calling all graduates seeking sales experience

B2B Entry-Level Sales Internship Program.

- Learn how to sell.
- Learn how to work the phone.
- Learn how to present to business owners.
- Learn how to close the deal.

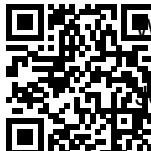

About the Job

You will be selling hi-tech services directly to business owners with special focus on Google virtual tours. Other services include business photography, website design, and custom internet marketing solutions. You will be calling on business owners, setting up meetings, making presentations, and closing deals.

About the program

Our full-time internship program trains new graduates or soon-to-be graduates how to become an effective sales and marketing person. The program may begin as early as May 4, 2015 and ends in August. Selected candidates will be offered a permanent position.
