DESCRIPTION The condo has been done with modern standards several years ago. So you have central heating, A/C, all kitchen appliances. This is actually NOT an apartment, but a part of a very large 3 bedroom, 2 bath room condo, but you could live quite independently from the other roommate (if you choose to) due to the layout. These two rooms and the bath are on the north end, while the other room and the other bath are on the south side, with living room, den, foyer, kitchen, dining room in between. The only thing has to be shared is the eat in kitchen, and the thermostat. One of the room is quite large. You could also use the den exclusive as your own dining room or office, or even a guest room, if you let the other roommate to have the formal dining room exclusively.

I had been renting the unit by rooms, but the roommates for these two rooms could have more conflicts due to the shared bath, I would like to rent them together.

Whether it's a couple, friends, or siblings.
 There is a great rent in the apartment, but she stays in the room.
 Water, trash, and hot water are included, you would split the cost for electricity and heating gas.
 Features: Living room, Dining room, Storage space, Office, Range / Oven, Refrigerator, Dishwasher, Microwave, Garbage disposal, Yard, Lawn, Heat: forced air, central A/C, Double pane / Storm windows, Hardwood floor, Tile floor.
 COMMUNITY FEATURES: vintage building, Secured entry, On-street parking, Garage - Detached LEASE
