I am currently trying to rehome a young male/female pair of sugar gliders. They are tame and friendly and they have a brand new very nice large cage that has a slide out tray for easy cleaning and it also sits on a stand with wheels and a shelf underneath to store the totes of extras and food/snacks Ect... plus they have a very nice PVC travel cage for going out of town or what not, and sooooo many toys and accessories it's quite frankly insane lol. I even have supplies to make your own toys for them and Ect. I have a few totes FULL of toys and pouches and extra cage accessories and Ect lol. They also have the actual sugar glider raptor wheel as well as the treadmill that they absolutely love too. All of their toys and supplies as well as both of the cages and everything is very nice and in excellent condition. I will not separate any of it or the gliders or sell any of it separately at all so please do not ask! The gliders are bonded and have been together forever. They are not even 1 year old yet. Only rehoming as I am getting out of gliders and this is the only pair I have and they will go with absolutely everything I have that has been mentioned above. You must pick them up and you must have a vehicle big enough to transport the cage and everything as their large cage does not collapse! Please have knowledge of sugar gliders and their care or do the necessary research as they are not like hamsters! They are exotics and do require special diets and care period! They have always been on the BML diet along with a good variety of fresh cut fruits and veggies every single night. I also have an abundance of treats to send along with them as well. You will not need to buy anything at all for these guys aside from fresh fruits and veggies :) they literally have everything you could want or need and then some! They have been very well cared for. They have never bred, they are young still. I am only asking a fee of $500.00 FIRM for everything! Will not lower do not ask this is a major STEAL for these two and all of the stuff going along with them! Their cages and toys and accessories costed me much more then this and that is not counting what I paid for each glider. May consider a trade for a very small breed young dog please no chihuahuas or Jack Russell terriers or daschunds! If interested in possibly trading please send pics of dog you have and info. Serious inquiries only please and make sure everyone that needs to be asked is spoken to already before contacting me as well. If interested please e mail me ASAP I can send pictures of everything to those truly interested upon inquiring. Thank you for your.
