The greedier than Goddamn shit 1% have sucked up everything and left tens of millions of American's to become unemployed. Our lying bullshit spewing government says the economy is improving but that's really ONLY for the filthy rich. This is because the large business owners have offshored most of their labor and the 1% now invest ONLY in overseas Most American jobs and opportunities are gone thanks to the Goddamn fucking greed of the filthy rich combined with the most Goddamn corrupt government in history that's run by the greediest douche-bags who care ONLY about helping the Goddamn rich get richer so they can get their bribes and campaign donations.

The Goddamn greed and corruption is simply out of control and keeps getting worse each day. Everyone agrees we to a revolution is the only solution now. We will create a financial system that's fair to everyone (not just the filthy rich) and a government that works for the people not just the Goddamn filthy rich.

And most important in the new America, politicians that sell us out are severley punished instead of greatly rewarded like
