My grandma is getting old and is having a hard time taking care of her cat. She asked me to help her find a good home for him. His name is Lucky. He is around 7 years old. She named him Lucky because she found him outside and brought him home when the weather was below zero. He is a lazy boy and loves to sleep. He is very chill and gentle. My grandma is always saying he is a good cat and no trouble at all. When he wants food or attention he will sit by you are stare at you until he gets what he wants. He would be happier with an older owner with no kids or other pets. He would be perfect for somebody who lives a quiet life and needs a friend to keep him or her company around the house. More than anything my grandma want's him to have a good home where he is loved and card for. If you are interested in taking him call my.
