I am a guy, 27, looking for a running partner. I used to run a lot in the military but have lost most of my motivation since I got out a couple years ago. Can run the bike path or around the college. guy or gal, preferably 18-30, but any age is fine. I'm not picky. Just be ready to run. Like I said it's been a while for me, so I probably won't be running very far or fast right off the.
