

LOST Have You Seen Me (West LA Area)

Location California
<https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-395841-z>

My beloved dog Daisy jumped out of my car window when we just arrived at the Vet Hospital on Venice blvd, she stayed right outside my car until some people tried to catch her and they chased her away, now she is running scared in the West LA area near National and Robertson and North of the 10 freeway that is the last place she was seen running scared.

She is extremely skittish of people she doesn't know but does like dogs, so if you are walking your dog she may come close to say hi to your dog, {{but do not chase her, she will run}} just PLEASE if you see her, call the West LA Animal Shelter or you can call me if you see!!!
