Hello

I am a 22 yo female who has just graduated college. I am looking to rent a room later this year, around September. I am from Upstate New York and am planning on attending PSU for a pre-dental post baccalaureate certificate after a year off from school (so next year). This year I will most likely be working a lot and getting accustomed to living in Portland.

I am a very open-minded, easy-going individual who is hard-working and quite tidy. Male or female does not matter to me. I am LGBT friendly and I would prefer to live with someone who is 420 and social drinking friendly, however no hard drugs. I am usually a night-owl but am respectful of early-risers and sleep well through noise. I understand how to live with others and am respectful to my roommates. I do not expect to be best friends but someone to chat with and share a few beers with would be nice since I will be new to the city. I am used to moving to new cities (I have lived in NYC and Australia prior to this move). I hope to adopt a cute kitten but it will not be a deal breaker if I cannot.

Interests include: yoga, hiking, exploring, biking, swimming, Netflix, photography, music, reading and I hope to improve my gardening skills. I enjoy being social but do also enjoy my alone time but am never opposed to having people over if you enjoy hosting social gatherings.

email me if anyone has questions, a room or is interested in sharing an apartment/house.

Thank you for reading and I hope to hear from!
