Hello,
I am 46 and work as a Hostess at a fine dining restaurant downtown.
I also have a syndicated column, teach workshops and do a variety of online oddjobs like web editing, transcription, bookkeeping, etc. I will begin attending PSU this Fall to finish my Bachelor's degree.
You can see my website here: www.officeempress.com

I have a large social circle and am involved in a number of events and activities. Home for me is a place to recharge, work quietly and have meals. I prefer to be friendly with my roommate(s), but don't expect to be best friends.

I am clean, respectful, quiet and check in prior to bringing a guest for overnight, so there are no surprises.
I am a great music lover, but also have a pair of headphones for when I don't want to disturb others with my listening preferences.
I am a performer and am involved in the theater community.

I am spiritual and follow a variety of paths. Energy is really important to me.

I moved to Portland last September and am able to leave my current living situation any time. I am able to provide rental company and employer references.

My cat is dependent on utility and food, and I am able to provide for her needs. I have a year old cat named Annie. She is content to sleep on my bed and all of my other litter boxes. She has no intention of going outside. She sees me as her only companion, but is friendly enough with others. We are a package deal and here remaining time on each is short. I intend to keep her comfortable and very loved and cared for in the meantime. I am fine with paying a pet deposit for her.

Please feel free to contact me via email to discuss the prospect of being roommates.

Thank.
