The nation's leading beer magazine, All About Beer Magazine, is looking for motivated and passionate beer enthusiasts for their Beer Explorer program. As a Beer Explorer you will not only have the opportunity to greatly expand your beer knowledge, but also have the chance to impact the Richmond beer market. This will be achieved by conducting samplings on behalf of local, regional, and national breweries in an attempt to expand upon their brand recognition and increase their market penetration. In doing so, you will learn each brewery's story as well as become extremely familiar with their line-up of beers. Some, minimal training is required. Ideal candidates will be out-going, engaging, have a basic knowledge of beer, as well as excellent communication skills. All candidates must be 21+ years old, have reliable transportation and be able to lift 20 lbs. Candidates will be required to conduct two samplings per month (usually on a Saturday) for 2-3 hours at a.
