

Friday childcare daytime (Mexico And chambers)

Location Colorado https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-399920-z

My name is jasmine, and I am looking to help out other single moms and also myself.

I'm not supermom, but I do have two happy and healthy boys, age 5 and 9.

I work full time, and I have Fridays off so I would like to make a couple extra bucks since I am already watching my boyfriends 4 year old.

If you are interested, I would be happy to chit chat with you further about stuff, but unfortunately it is only Friday days that I am available.

Rates are negotiable, depending on the age and needs of your child/ren. But most likely in the 30 dollar range
