I have a room available for rent beginning May 4 in my three-bedroom house in southwest Pontiac.

The cost to move in is $700 -- $350 for the first month's rent, plus a $350 refundable security deposit.

With your rent, you have full access to the house and all utilities -- cable/WiFi, heat, electricity, water -- are included.

I am a 32-year-old male who works a full-time day job in downtown Detroit and moonlights at a restaurant in Bloomfield Township about five evenings a week -- which is to say that I am rarely at the house.

Also living in the house is a 25-year-old male who owns his own business and is home far more frequently than I am.

I have lived in the house for over three and a half years, and he has been living there with me for over a year.

We are two pretty easy-going guys who are quiet, respectful, pretty clean (he is, at least), and not ones to throw parties.

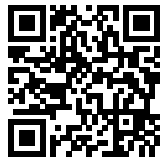

Here is what I'm looking for in a housemate:

Someone 25 years or older, female, who has been over 18 for a while, flexible, and open to you.
Someone who has a job, is employable, demonstrates employment, and/or works full-time to see.
Someone who has two recent pay check stubs.

*No criminal record.
Someone who is also quiet, respectful, pretty clean, and not one to throw parties.
Send me an email and we can chat, and I'll send some photos of the room if you seem like you could be a good fit to live in the house with.
