If you are struggling to write your resume, CV, or cover letter, or if you have already drafted a document but simply can't get it to a level of taut, polished presentation, I can help!

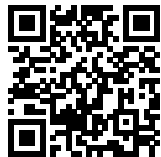

On top of being a published novelist and full-time freelance writer, I have extensive experience working on resumes and cover letters and guarantee that I can get yours into shape quickly and for a fair rate. 24 hour turnaround is usually possible, and phone consultations are gratis. I accept cash, checks, or PayPal, and I never ask for payment up front.
