I am selling my 2007 Toyota Tundra. It's is a beautiful truck very clean and runs like a champ. It has about 90k miles and is going to go up because it's my daily driver. I've owned the truck since 60k miles and have had no problems on it at all. The truck does have a rebuilt title but it's all original parts nothing aftermarket on it except the rear taillight because they were cracked when I purchased the truck. It comes with 4x4 amazing in winter. Overall very nice truck but I'm just looking to get a newer one so this one has to go.. please call or text at 216-ninseventhree
